SATURDAY, NOV. 27, 1880. HERE ARE THE FIGURES.

"The Chattanooga Times says we ought not to abuse the coal ring. Well, Mr. Times, just wait until you have to pay 16 cents per bushel for coal when it can be laid down at your doors for ten cents, and at a profit, and times is very well told.

How do you know coal can be laid down in Chattanooga or in Knoxville

The coal men pay one cent per bushel royalty. The free miners receive two cents per bushel, convict labor costing less. The freight to Knoxville is four cents. Thus the total cost is seven cents. The price per bushel for lump coal is sixteen cents. Total profit nine cents per bushel.
